

Bring Him Your Heart of Stone

Dave Bilbrough

D                      G/D                      D                      A/D                      D

Bring Him your heart of stone with all the doubts you hold
 In spite of all you've been His blood can wash you clean
 No mat - ter who you are ri - sing or fal - len star

G/B                      G2                      D                      D                      G/D

and let Him come to you and give you life He hears your troub-He longs to come to you and give you life led the way is here for you to know His life Re-lease your hid-den

D                      A/D                      D                      G/B